

I AMES by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. To the chiefe Constables, and Bailiffes of the Hundred of _____ and to every of them in our County of _____ greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cause to come xxiiiij. honest, sufficient, and discreet men of your said Hundred, before the clerke of the Market of our household, and through our Realme of England, or his lawfull Deputy within the Verge, aswell within liberties as without to appeare at vpon _____ being the _____ day of _____ next ensuing the date heereof, by eight of the clocke in the morning of the same day, Then and there aswell to rate, ceasse, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne, Graine, Victualls, Horse-meate, Lodging, and other things for the expences of our household and traine in this our Progresse, as also to heare and to doe vpon their severall Oathes, as they and every of them shall be, for vs, and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreover that you giue warning to all petty Constables, of every Parish and Hamlet within your laide Hundred, to command all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers, Tauerners, Mercers, Drapers, Chandlers, Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Cornesellers, and all other persons within your said Hundred, who haue, vse, or occupy any manner of Weights or Measures, sealed or not sealed, every of them to appeare with the same, the day, howre, and place aforesaid, to see them duly examined with our Standard. And then the Bakers and Victuallers bread of all sorts to bee shewed for the perfect intelligence of the true assize thereof: At which time and place aforesaid, all your officers to bee present and attendant, to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and Surnames of the aforesaid Iurors and Artificers into the court in due forme of writing, as yee will answer to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforesaid the _____ day of _____ in the _____ yeere of our Raigne of England, &c.

I AMES by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. To the chiefe Constables, and Bailiffes of the Hundred of _____ and to every of them in our County of _____ greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cause to come xxiiiij. honest, sufficient, and discreet men of your said Hundred, before the clerke of the Market of our household, and through our Realme of England, or his lawfull Deputy within the Verge, aswell within liberties as without to appeare at vpon _____ being the _____ day of _____ next ensuing the date heereof, by eight of the clocke in the morning of the same day, Then and there aswell to rate, ceasse, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne, Graine, Victualls, Horse-meate, Lodging, and other things for the expences of our household and traine in this our Progresse, as also to heare and to doe vpon their severall Oathes, as they and every of them shall be, for vs, and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreover that you giue warning to all petty Constables, of every Parish and Hamlet within your laide Hundred, to command all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers, Tauerners, Mercers, Drapers, Chandlers, Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Cornesellers, and all other persons within your said Hundred, who haue, vse, or occupy any manner of Weights or Measures, sealed or not sealed, every of them to appeare with the same, the day, howre, and place aforesaid, to see them duly examined with our Standard. And then the Bakers and Victuallers bread of all sorts to bee shewed for the perfect intelligence of the true assize thereof: At which time and place aforesaid, all your officers to bee present and attendant, to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and Surnames of the aforesaid Iurors and Artificers into the court in due forme of writing, as yee will answer to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforesaid the _____ day of _____ in the _____ yeere of our Raigne of England, &c.

L A M E S, by the grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland defender of the faith, &c. To the of the of and to every of them in our County of Greeting. Wee will and command you that you warne, and cause to come xxiiiij. honest, sufficient and discrete men of your said before the Clerke of the market of our household, through our Realme of England, or his lawfull deputy within the Verge, as well within liberties as without, to appeare at vpon being the day of next ensuing the date hereof by eight of the clocke in the morning of the same day: Then and there to rate, ceasse, and taxe the prices of all kinde of Corne Graine Victualls, Horsemeate Lodging, and other things for the expence of our household and traine in this our Progresse as also to heare and to doe vpon their seuerall Oathes, as they and every of them shall be for vs. and on our behalfe required according to the lawes of our Realme. And moreouer that you giue warning to all Bakers, Brewers, Inholders, Tiplers Tauerners, Mercers Drapers, Chandlers, Butchers, Smithes, Weauers, Millers, Farmers, Corne-sellers and all other persons within your said who haue, vse, or occupy any manner of Weights or Measures, sealed or not sealed every of them to appeare with the same, the day, houre and place aforesaid, to see them duly examined with our Standard.
And then the Bakers personally to appeare with their bread of all sorts, to see it weighed for the perfect intelligence of the true assize thereof: At which time and place aforesaid, all your officers to be present and attendant to make due returne of this our commandement; together with the names and surnames of the aforesaid Iurois and Artificers in the court, in due forme of writing, as yee will answer to the contrary at your perills. Dated vnder our Seale of the Office aforesaid the day of in the yeere of our Raigene of England, &c.